BOY SCOUTS OPPOSE STEALING BARRELS

Scout Executive Housman Issues Card to Boys as to This Practice.

Campaign for Members Closes To-Morrow Night.

Boy Scouts of Richmond will put the tamp of disapproval on the practice stealing barrels for their Christmas nfires. In an open letter to the boys Richmond, Scout Executive W. J. B. usman calls upon his charges to use elr influence to break up this petty llevery, which has grown to huge pro rtions here. His letter follows: the Boys of Richmond:

Throughout our city at Christmas no there is a desire upon the part of yes of all ages, in gangs, groups and individuals, to build bonires. This preceded as early as the first days Decembor by the stealing of barrels, any times this petty theft has led to a taking of money and the promise at to steal the barrel. How can the tys of Richmond rise above this low actice? First, by realizing that the king of a barrel is stealing: the relit of this continued practice you all low. Second, your play on street rners or alleys needs the fellow whom feel that taking a barrel is not roughout our city at Christmas and more Scouts in Richmondhere are thousands of boys in Richmond— here are thousands of boys in Rich-nord who are not Scouts—whether cout or not boy, remember this, the oy who whis is he who exerts his est influence, realizing the difference etween playing (fun) and stealing. I attribute being cured of stomach trouble through taking Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey as directed. Being a manicurist, I did not find time to cat my meals regularly; I would eat candy every day to appease my hunger. sequently I soon developed acute stom ach trouble, and found it very difficult for any food to stay on my stomach. My family doctor did not seem to help me. One Sunday I neticed your advertisement in a local paper and concluded to give Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey a fair trial. I can truthfully say key a fair trial. I can truthfully say that in six weeks I was able to resun my work as a manicurist, having entirely overcome my stemach trouble. Any number of my friends remark that they know of many similar cases of stemach trouble being cured by Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey."—Miss. Frances M. Lutz, 3619 N. 13th St., Philadelphia, Pa.
